

2028 and 2030 IASE Conference Proposal

We are currently seeking proposals for the 2028 and 2030 IASE Conference site. We welcome proposals for a venue conference site venue that meet the requirements listed below:

Countries eligible to host an IASE conference must be signatories of both the UDHR and CRPD and enforce the tenets of these United Nations obligations by their own country legislation and governance, including freedom from criminal penalties based on identity, expression, association, and legitimate professional advocacy.

Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR)

(<https://www.un.org/en/about-us/universal-declaration-of-human-rights>)

Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (CRPD)

(<https://www.ohchr.org/en/instruments-mechanisms/instruments/convention-rights-persons-disabilities>)

- Located in a city with an international airport and situated in reasonable proximity to hotels. In addition, there should be available low-cost accommodations (e.g., dorms) for individuals who prefer to stay on the university campus.

- Provide adequate meeting space with 12-15 meeting rooms that would accommodate 25-35 persons, a large meeting space (to accommodate 400 people) for general plenary sessions, and space for registration, exhibits, and poster sessions.
- Provide needed equipment (e.g., wi-fi, overheads, and/or LCD projectors, screens, laptops, easels).
- Have food services available at/near venue site.
- Be willing to promote the conference in the region/country and designate a minimum of 6-8 people to serve on a Local Planning Committee. The local committee may include University/School staff members, International Relations administrator, the Dean or head of the School or University and local IASE members to work with the IASE Planning Committee on conference needs (e.g., printing a program, transportation, visa issues).
- Be willing to provide guidance to the IASE Planning Committee about local transportation options, cultural tours, school and agency visits, a venue for the Gala Dinner, and more.
- Be able and willing to accept registrations from your own country. This would include accepting the registrations and funds and maintaining appropriate records for accounting purposes.

 Participate in a Zoom conference call with the IASE President and conference committee with your local conference committee after the receipt of your proposal.

If you are interested in hosting the 2028 or 2030 IASE Conference, please submit a proposal to IASE addressing all the information listed above. All proposals should be forwarded to our IASE President and President-Elect.

Your proposal should be sent to Daniel McCarthy at: DanielRNM@comcast.net and/or Dr. Anupriya Chadha at anupriyadiya@gmail.com.

The proposals will be reviewed by our Site Selection Committee. The recommended site(s) will be forwarded to the IASE Board for final selection. The final sites will be announced on our website as soon as the selection is approved.
